

January 1994

EXEMPTION FOR ABORIGINAL MIDWIVES

Midwifery Act, 1991

"An aboriginal person who provides traditional midwifery services may,

a) use the title "aboriginal midwife", a variation or abbreviation or an equivalent in another language; and

b) hold himself or herself out as a person who is qualified to practise in Ontario as an aboriginal midwife."