

January 1994

MANAGEMENT OF LABOUR AS A CONTROLLED ACT FOR MIDWIVES

Management of labour is defined as professional responsibility and accountability accepted by a primary caregiver for decision-making and the independent carrying out of controlled acts within the scope of midwifery practice.