

October 3, 2000

GUIDELINE ON HIV TESTING

Midwives should offer all clients HIV testing during pregnancy. Midwives should provide sufficient information to enable an informed choice regarding testing. Midwives should make reasonable efforts to ensure that HIV positive clients have access to appropriate social services, medical counselling and care.