
CMO Public Consultation Posting Guidelines

Commenters must include their name and email address however names and email addresses are not posted with feedback for public view. Commenters are identified as a member of the public, a midwife or a stakeholder. Names of organizations are included with stakeholder feedback.

The College reserves the right to refuse to post feedback, in whole or in part, that, in its sole discretion: is unrelated to the policy or issue under consultation; contains complaints and/or compliments about named midwives; is abusive, obscene, harassing/threatening or includes defamatory or libelous comments.

The College does not review the content of any feedback for accuracy.

All comments are reviewed and approved by College staff prior to posting.

Please contact cmo@cmo.on.ca if you would prefer to provide your feedback via email.
