LABORATORY TESTING

Standard

Midwives must only order laboratory tests that are within the scope of practice of the profession, as defined in the Midwifery Act, 1991, and that are listed in Appendix B of the Laboratory and Specimen Collection Centre Licensing Act, R.S.O 1990 L.1 - "Tests that a midwife may request".<sup>1</sup>

Midwives must have the requisite knowledge, skill and judgment to order laboratory tests from the list of authorized laboratory tests.
